The conviction rests mainly upon the alleged confessions, one of which was virtually retracted in the Sessions Court. The confessions are inconsistent in several important particulars, and there is actually no evidence to corroborate the main story, as to the murder of the deceased.

The evidence of the Kind offered, with regard to the loan of the barber's Knife and its discovery in the house of Vaccel, could be easily procured and ought not to be implicitly relied upon.

Independent of the so called confessions, which have not been corroborated to such an extent as to warrant a conviction finding of murder by the accd, there is hardly any motive for the perpetration of such a diabolical murder if, as alleged, by Vaccel, the 2nd accused on terms of intimacy with the deceased and Vaccel herself did not intend to Kill her. Under all circumstances and taking into consideration the recommendation of the convicting Judge I would humbly advise His Highness the Maharajah to Repeal & commute the sentence of death passed on the accused Vodakkka

I am also in favor of commuting the sentence of death passed on 2nd accused also - And there is no memorial from him the matter may be reconsidered in connection with his first memorial

It seems to me that the recommendation of the Judge who convicted the memorialist of murder is entitled to consideration and that the sentence passed on Vodakkka the memorialist may, in the exercise of the Royal prerogative of mercy, be commuted to one of transportation for life.

I have given this case my most anxious thought and my difficulty has been to ascertain the exact purport of, and the weight to be given to the remarks of the Hon'ble Judges of the Chief Court.

They have no affirmative recommendation to make and will not probably be concerned if the due course of law will not be interfered with by any command which Her Highness the Maha Rani Regent may be pleased to give in this matter. The circulation and the responsibility of Her Highness' action will therefore rest with herself and in deciding what that moved he ?

Milnes that he

the opinion already formed and expressed by her. If there are proper reasons to modi fy such opinion ?
moved he the first
to humbly advise
her so, but ?
think on very careful consideration that there are no such reasons -

I would not go
beyond the sentence
recorded by both
the Sessions Judge
and the Chief Court
which is in accordance with the unanimous
opinion of the assessors - and I conclude from a perusal of the evidence that the memorialist
has been rightly con
-victed. The question is whether the punishment is not appropriate -
I do not see any reason for not awarding

in this case the extreme punishment. The murder was most deliberate, unprovoked
and cold blooded -
The memorialist
was present throughout
and took an active part in directing the second accused Rustum Khan that he did - The deceased
was inoffensive
and innocent
and even in her lifetime is said to have borne much
unkind treatment
by the memorialist
who is not a young person but is of the mature age of forty years - The only
explanation of this
diabolical deed
seems to me to have been the diabolical
heart of the memo-
rialist mind -
As is usual in such cases while the
had not the slightest
concern
hesitation or compunction

5

for the loss of the de-ceased's life she keenly fears it most and tries every effort
for saving her own life -
Is this a sufficient reason for interfering
with the due operation
of the law of the land which provides for death sentence? There is no other reason - the circs of the case
do not warrant
such a course, but the exercise of mercy
may not depend upon them. While I shall not object to the exercise of Her Highness' Royal prerogative as her own spontaneous act
of mercy simply to save the life of a woman,
base though she is
I fail to see any adequate reasons for my humbly advising Her Highness
to remit or commute
the judicial punishment which has been awarded in this case - But whatever treatment is accorded to the memorialist should also be extended to the 2nd Prisoner Kushwaha though he has not asked for it -

This is my view in the absence of any discussion of the case by the other members of the Council & I feel that such a discussion is not undesirable.

Submitted with Cr. Ap. No 226 of 1898-99 & Govt. order on the 1st Memorial - 5.8.99

To,

Her Highness the MahaRani Regent of Mysore

The Memorial being addressed to the Queen Regent praying that the sentence passed on Bodakka alias Hanumakka, condemned prisoner No. 983, is as follows:—

In Chittaldrug Sessions Case No. 9 of 98-9, on the file of Sessions Court Nagar Division, I sentenced her to be hanged. This sentence was upheld by the Chief Court of Mysore in Criminal appeal No. 226 of 98-9.

On submitting a memorial, Your Highness was pleased to pass the following order:- "There are not sufficient grounds to interfere with the order of conviction passed

5.8.99

Nagar Division,
passed by the Sessions Judge & confirmed by the Chief Court of Mysore". On receipt of the copy of the said order, the Superintendent of Central Jail Bangalore communicated the same to me. He said that he received a warrant to hang me on Monday morning the 14th Instant. I therefore humbly pray Your Highness, for mercy, once more, as follows:—

I am a female. I never committed murder, the offence with which I was charged. My enemies in the village got up false witnesses &c, subjecting me to the influence of the Police. They, not only ill-treated me in different ways, but but made me liable to this severe punishment. Your Highness, as the Ruler of the Province, has been protecting thousands of people. As I am helpless and as I have none to take care of me, I pray Your Highness to treat me just as Your Highness would treat your daughters. Your Highness will kindly free me from this severe punishment of death, and commute it to any other punishment at least, such as, transportation, or rigorous imprisonment for any number of years. Thereby, I save my life, treating me as one of Your Highness' daughter. By doing so, I can send for my

young

young & helpless children, on any occasion & see their faces. Thus runs the memorial.
